

REAL EYES REALIZE "REAL Heroic Journey"

Our REAL Eyes Realize podcast episode with founder Christina Roberts Enneking is a vulnerable peek into the soul journey of Christina's own Heroic journey and the process she helps others through ... the process toward breaking unwanted habits/patterns and realizing freedom/liberation. As many are familiar, the Hero's Journey was made popular by Joseph Campbell in his book, "A Hero With A Thousand Faces". Christina's version is where people individually and collectively unpack their own REAL Heroic Journey, with practical tools and guidance. If interested to know more of how to unpack these jewels, please contact Christina at cenneking@me.com or view options at christinarobertsenneking.com.

The "Heroic Journey" is a model for what every human experiences on the journey of their lifetime. It's a beautiful inquiry to see what archetypes arise, as helpers and guides, as we travel from the "known" elements of who we are, to the "unknown", and back again to sharing our gifts with the known world.
